YEARBOOK COMMITTEE

"Who's our advisor this week? . . . Yearbook? What yearbook? . . . Hey, we might really have a Yearbook! . . . Saturday morning meetings . . . pizza in the ceiling . . . surfin' in the library . . . deadlines? . . . How many pages do we have? . . . We need more pictures—can you cut them? . . . Do you have to crop them all? . . . What do we do? . . . How do we do that? . . . Whatever You do, do not cut the pictures? . . . LINDY!!! . . . Thanks, Lindy!!!!"

Thanks! Thanks! THANKS!!! To these people who worked and ate their way through this yearbook . . . who sacrificed their Saturday mornings to this production . . . Ms. Egan and her financial staff: Monique Ethier, Karen McInnes, Danielle Demers, Lynne Elliot, Paul Plutnicki and Debbie Travers . . . and our "FLASH" crew: Linda Downer, Corey Devany, Scott Braunhardt, Dave Lundberg, and Diane Wenzel . . . and our totally fun editorial group: Stephanie Fenstermacher, Chris Litster, Jen Duridas, Elise Arruda, Alisa Cherney, Missy Lobdell, Michelle Marengo, Angela Higbe, Monique Wright and Kristin Balfour . . . THANKS!!!

PRINCIPAL MESSAGE

Dear Class of 1987:

As you look through this yearbook many of you will be amazed at the variety of activities that have gone on during the year. You will also find yourselves reminiscing about many of the things that you were involved with and the many enjoyable times you experienced with your classmates.

The purpose of a yearbook is to capture the uniqueness of a class and to rejuvenate the enthusiasm and excitement that has been your trademark.

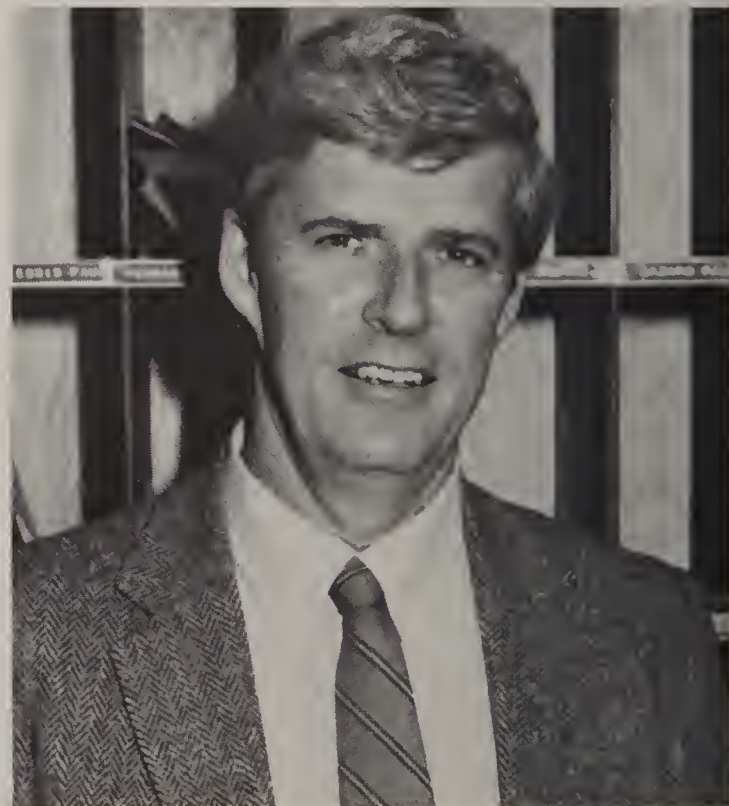

The class of 1987 has been unique, enthusiastic, exiting, and memorable. The faculty, staff, and remaining students will miss you, and we hope that you will miss us too.

We all wish you, the Class of 1987, future happiness, health, and success as you leave to embark on the next phase of your lives. We also hope that in future years as you peruse these pages that you, too, will experience the warmth and nostalgia that is typically Marlborough High School and is uniquely the Class of 1987 - the class with class!

Sincerely,

Leonard F. Morley

Leonard F. Morley

CLASS MESSAGE

Mr. Morley,
Throughout our high school years we have come to appreciate you. Your time and patience is very much valued by our class. Without your contributions we would not be what we are today. You've meant alot to the Class of '87 and hope that, we, as a class, have meant as much to you. Thanks for everything, Len.

FOOTBALL

The football team suffered through a frustrating year. Although their team record did not show a successful record, there were great individual accomplishments by members of the team. Senior Captain Rob Lambert was the "Defensive Player of the Game" for the Thanksgiving Day Game. Senior Pete Femino was voted star of the week by the Middlesex and Worcester Telegram and Gazette newspaper for his outstanding performance in the team's tie against Central Mass. Champions, Milford. The team will also miss the efforts of seniors: Paul Lefavre, Mike Furbush, Brad Askins, Bubba Freitas, and captains Pete Arcabascio and Bryan Krysa.

SEMI-FORMAL

In the beginning so scared and young,
Wondering what has just begun.
Together we started our "best" four years,
Accepting the diversity and facing our fears.

Imagine the things that we'll remember
forever,
Remember all the times we've spent together.
All of us, so different, but somehow the same,
Each of us searching for some certain goal,
Or some kind of fame.

Before we reached our high school end,
Stop and think of the time we did spend.
We have learned so much
From our friends, new and old,
The memories, experiences, and spirit
That our hearts hold.

OUR TIME

Our years here are over
It's time for us to go.
We have to accept that
We cannot say "no".
We have placed our mark here
There's nothing left to do
Except to say good-bye
And bid everyone, Adeiu.
I hope no one forgets
The memories we made
They should last forever
Though they may start to fade.
Remember all the good times
Forget not the bad
They have come from the best years
We have ever had.
Good luck to everyone
In all that you do
May success follow you
Your whole life through.

-Deborah Travers

CLASS WILL 1987

- I, Rebecca Addy, leave Donna the mirror in my car and Kristy my George Carlin tapes.
- I, Steve Allen, leave my belly to the freshmen class Because U Deserve What Every Individual Should Enjoy Regularly.
- I, Winky Allen, leave all my girlfriends to my brother Pitak Allen.
- I, Peter Arcabascio, leave all the atheletic dept. footballs which I have taken home to M.L.
- I, Caroline Ball, leave Karolyn N. S.M. in our E period study in the library.
- I, Kristin Balfour, leave to Lori Peltak, all my good advice, to Dave L., I leave the cheerleaders, to Christine Martino, I leave a 45 RPM of "SEPARATE LIVES", and to my brother, Billy, I leave all the great times that I had in high school and the hopes that he will always have great and special friends like the ones that I was so lucky to have.
- I, Kathleen Blair, leave my sister Suzy Blair, having to deal with my uncle.
- I, Lori Bonnell, leave my Godzuki to Gooche!!
- I, Marsha Boston, leave the fun times that I had at Marlboro High to my sister Karen.
- I, Pam Bouylay, leave John Cavicchio my spot on the 2nd floor railing.
- I, Allyson Bourdeau, leave Jackie Smith all my extra credits, and Kim McGuire and Charissa Donohue some brains.
- I, Heidi Bradford, leave my tenor sax to Amy Langley . . . she was gonna take it anyway.
- I, Scott Braunhardt, leave the state of Massachusetts to the rest of the world—let them suffer for awhile! I also leave my sanity to the astral plane and to the little creatures of the night.
- I, Susan Cain, leave my seat on the ski lift and the songs and memories that go with it to Karolyn Nelson.
- I, Miguel Camacho, leave my bird calls to Ms. Ellsworth and maybe when I die my gold chains and rings.
- I, Scott Campbell, leave to C.C. the wet/dry vacum to clean up all the spots that suprisingly show up so precariously on Friday nights.
- I, Alisa Cherney, leave locker 495 to anyone who dare open it and clean it out, and to Mel two more years at rumor high! Have Fun!!
- I, Crissy Czedik, to Karen and Carol, leave my Spanish Dictionary.
- I, Andy Dahlstrom, leave Mr. Kamataris my empty paint cans.
- I, David DeForest, leave DeFcal to Mr. Rodlin.
- I, Jerry denBoggende, leave my number "24" to anyone who will be proud to wear it!! And, my "flat top" top anyone who will have the patience to let it grow back.
- I, Danielle Demers, leave Sully my captains seat on the b-ball team, in hope that she leads the team to the Centrum next year. Also, I leave Karolyn the E period study in the library.
- I, Cherie DesRochers, leave all my excuses that I gave throught out my senior year to my brother Jayson.
- I, Shannon DiAntonio, leave the "Rook" mobile to be renamed "OBE"—my favorite loser!
- I, Julie Dolan, leave to Mr. Terry the unanswered question-Where do brown eggs come from?
- I, Vicki Domings, leave my one leftover credit to Debbie.
- I, Michelle Doucette, leave all my excuses for Mr. Kamataris to Bobby and Danielle.
- I, Linda Downer, leave Jezeabelle and all her problems to the high school parking lot out back.
- I, Jeff Dreyfus, leave Mrs. Pascarelli to be tormented by the remainder of the Dreyfus family.
- I, Joe Drummey, leave to my brother, Mike, my car, my grades, and all the good times I had with Snotty.
- I, Patti Duggan, leave my position as panther to anyone who can put up with it. To Miss Roy, I leave my USELESS trigonometry class. To Chris Litster, our endless friendship and fun times in Period F study. To my brother Chris, a jolly junior year and my super senior year.
- I, Jennifer Duridas, leave to any freshmen who deserves them, my too talkative comments, and to my cousin Erika, my secrets on getting A's in Latin.
- I, Jennifer Edwards, leave all my short men and my makeup case along w/ our souvenir from Koala Inn to always remember our hunneys & to Visco I leave my heart that is always full of love for him.
- I, Kathy Eisenhauer, leave my locker to a freshmen and hope that he figures out the trick!
- I, Monique Ethier, leave all my fun times at M.H.S. to my Per. E buddies Laurel F. and Deb A.
- I, Kelli-ann Etre, leave all of my happy memories to my sister Sue and the 440 and relay to another freshman.
- I, Stephanie Fenstermacher, leave to Amanda Lobdell and Ericka Borowski, my book, "How to pick up a yuppie". And to my sister Linda, my wardrobe cause I don't know what she'll do without it!
- I, Patty Ferro, leave my bangs to Debbie Domings and Friends!
- I, Julie Flagg, leave all my extra credits to my sisters.
- I, Brian Flynn, leave my GH award to the incoming freshman atheletes.
- I, Linda Fossile, leave Debbie Natale a bottle of aspirin (for all the headaches she'll have in cooking class), and a 44 magnum to "get rid of" the cause of the headaches.
- I, Susan Fredrikson, leave Angela Naples a mile to walk to school. I leave the memory of Flibbith to future girls Varsity Basketball teams. I leave Erik safe after school 1/2 Day parties.
- I, Michael Furbush, leave my grades to Chris King.
- I, Shawn Gogan, leave all my voices and hugs to Ashling Burke.
- I, Tina Guzzi, leave my fast talk and smooth moves to Debi Duffin, and my "60's" state of mind to Mr. Marusa.
- I, Sharon Hathaway, leave a peaceful D period gym to my brother.
- I, Angela Higbe, leave my passing grades for the next three years to my sister Jessica, and the best of luck for a great senior year to Mel and the rest of the Class of '88!!
- I, Cherie Iappini, leave my old banged up Rossi's to Jennifer Skarin.
- I, Kamal Jain, leave Mr. Morley my crumbled wall, it lasted through sophomore year against the strees and strain but my lunacy ate its way through. Enjoy Len!

I, Sharon Kearns, leave my cheerleading pom poms to Lauri Newbould and a roll of pepomint lifesavers to Jen Ott.
 I, Todd Keigwin, do hereby leave my midseason peak to next years' #1 runner, Chad Asplund.
 I, Andrea Komisaurik, leave behind my seat on the bus to any other upcoming senior without a choice.
 I, Laura LaJuenesse, leave my thanks and appreciation to Susan Leavey, my Tom Cruise pic in my locker to a freshman fan, my spelling ability to anyone who takes Business English, and my love to D.A.
 I, Rob Lambert, leave my crafty vet moves to Cappa and Burnie so they can laugh at snotty.
 I, Christen Langguth, leave my parking space to my sister Tracy.
 I, Paul LeFaivre, leave the football team's reputation to Snibba and hippy, plus all pooch and party responsibilities- Good luck guys!!!
 I, Chris Litster, leave to Patti all the thanks to an unsung heroine that should have had the "spot". And to a level "0" math junior another "song of the day" to bother but amuse D. Roy.
 I, David Lundberg, leave "The Good Book" to Brett Baggs. May you read it more that I did.
 I, Scott McCabe, leave my brother David the McCabe image to uphold.
 I, Mike McClusky, leave all my old homework assignments, essays and research papers to my little brother.
 I, Laurie McClay, leave Andrea Sabella knowing that her hair looks OK! and I leave Sharon and Debbie Natale all my cuts and tardies to be carried on!!
 I, Jackie McKean, leave my brother, John to Mr Beradino . . . He doesn't eat much.
 I, Sam McKenzie, leave Allen Basquait all my basketball moves so that he can have some game and I leave my "Baby" Ms. Roy, my wise crack.
 I, Eric Miele, leave the Naze Memorial trophy to the outdoor track team.
 I, Stacy Milliken, leave my sister Colleen, and Tami R. another valentines day poem and to Mr. Rigney, I leave an upside down frown!
 I, Cara Montgomery, leave another year of Cathy to Mrs. Collins.
 I, Pamela Mulcahy, leave to Lisa Martino a lifetime supply of gym clothes.
 I, David Nahoumi, leave my father to all the unfortunate underclassmen.
 I, Paul Navarro, leave my Official Larry Joe Fan Club membership to next year's senior gym class.
 I, Phil Nettleton, leave my shoes to whomever can follow in my footsteps.
 I, Nancy O'Malley, leave Angela Naples my good moods at lunch.
 I, Paul Plutnicki, leave Jim Barnes to Chad Asplund, Opus, "Heavy Metal" and gum wrappers to incoming freshmen, and the "Great White Elephant" to Mr. Winer.
